On July 13, 2012, respondent filed a motion to delay or stay the commencement of a two-year actual suspension that was to take effect the same day. On July 16, 2012, we temporarily stayed the effect of the suspension so that the full review department may act upon respondent's motion and the State Bar's response, if any. The State Bar filed its opposition on July 24, 2012.

Finding no good cause, the motion to delay or stay the suspension is denied. The temporary stay is ordered lifted and period of suspension effective August 1, 2012.
